Dedication

TO-OUR-PARENTS

We, the Seniors of Downs High School, Class of 1954, do hereby dedicate our annual to you, Our Parents. It is with deepest respect and appreciation that we do so. Without your constant guidance and understanding it would have been impossible for us to attain our goal. Our yearbook is one of the most important achievements in our school life and we would like to share it with you. Please accept the dedication of our annual as an expression of the love and appreciation which we have for you.

Annual Queen

Queen Woodward, senior, has maintained a high scholastic record and has held offices in Kayettes, Band, and Dragonettes. She has also been active in the field of music. The Annual Staff wishes to congratulate Geraldine.

Attendant Michel, a senior, has done a great deal to improve the life of Downs High School. Through her eager participation in class room work and activities, she has accomplished this.

Annual King

King Cunningham, a junior, has attained for himself an outstanding record in leadership and scholastic ability. He was treasurer of Hi-Y and he has been active in all major sports. The Annual Staff feels that Eddie is very deserving of the honor.

Attendant Akens, a junior, also has a very fine high school record in all three phases of school life; athletic, scholastic, and leadership.

Seniors at work???

Features

Twenty-three hard working seniors have completed four years of diligent study in DHS. During this time they have been active in all the affairs of the school. They have won honors for themselves and the school in scholastic contests. Much of the athletic ability comes from this class. A high percent of offices in organizations are held by seniors.

THE SENIORS PRESENT "THIS NIGHT BEWARE"

"This Night Beware" takes place in the lobby of Black Crow Inn a dusty old tavern. Velma holds an unusual ghost party and all her friends are scared spitless.

The evening is made more lively with witches, moving brooms, red devils, cats, and ghosts. The comedy of the Negro servants is well fitted. In the end, the long lost Alan Blair, who had supposedly committed suicide, is found to be alive.

Juniors

The junior class is the live wire class. They number 23, 11 boys and 12 girls. The first highlight of this year was the junior play, "Let's Face It." To climax the term they were hosts at the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

The boys are very active in football, basketball, track and the music organizations. To them we give much credit to the success of our record in sports. The girls do a fine job of supporting these teams and serve as officers and committee members in the clubs of DHS.

Learning to cook?

The sophomore class has the honor of being the largest class in school with an enrollment of 32 at present. This class is also evenly divided, having 16 boys and 16 girls.

The boys make up an important part of the "B" basketball squad and were very active on the football team. The girls are busy with their activities of Band, Glee Club, Kayettes, and Dragonettes. This class has some outstanding talent and will be doing great things for DHS in the next few years.

Student Council parties

The student council performs many duties of the school. It sponsors many parties and school activities. It is composed of a vice-president and a representative from each class. Also a representative from each organization. President Headley was elected by the student body. This democratic governing body of our school is to be commended on their fine work.

Music Activities

GIRLS' TRIO

E. Bohlen, M. Hayes, J. Harrison

The Downs Music Department consists of a nice sized band, girls' glee club, boys' glee club, and a mixed chorus. Also, there are other smaller groups as the pep band, girls' trio, various quartet and duet groups. The mixed chorus and glee clubs take part in league and district festivals and sing at many local programs in school and for the community. The band attends the league festivals, which are held in various towns within the league and attend the district festival at Concordis. It plays for all of our local football games and marches in parades. The pep band is a very small group that provides entertainment at the basketball games during the season.

The girls' trio and other small singing groups assist in many programs and activities of the school such as: feature during plays, the Christmas program, American Education Week, and many others. They are always glad to help the community with its programs and entertainments.
